Representative for him to assess whether they are privileged as claimed. If the Supervising Legal Representative decides that of any of the documents may be privileged or is in any doubt as to their status, he will exclude them from the search and retain them in his possession pending further Order of the Court.

12. If the First Respondent wishes to take legal advice and gather documents as permitted, it must first inform the Supervising Legal Representative and keep him informed of the steps being taken.
13. No item may be removed from the premises until a list of the items to be removed has been prepared, and a copy of the list has been supplied to the First Respondent, and they have been given a reasonable opportunity to check the list.
14. The premises must not be searched, and items must not be removed from them, except in the presence of the First Respondent.
15. If the Supervising Legal Representative is satisfied that full compliance with paragraphs 13 or 14 is not practicable, he may permit the search to proceed and items to be removed without fully complying with them.

DELIVERY UP OF ARTICLES/DOCUMENTS

16. The First Respondent must immediately hand over to the Applicant's legal representatives any of the listed items, which are in their possession or under their control, save for any computer or hard disk integral to any computer. Any items the subject of a dispute as to whether they are listed items must immediately be handed over to the Supervising Legal Representative for safe keeping pending resolution of the dispute or further order of the Court.
17. The First Respondent must immediately give the search party effective access to the computers on the premises, with all necessary passwords, to enable the computers to be searched. If they contain any listed items the First Respondent must cause the listed items to be displayed so that they can be read and copied. The First Respondent must provide the Applicant's legal representatives with copies of all listed items contained in the computers. All reasonable steps shall be taken by the Applicant and the Applicant's legal representatives to ensure that no damage is done to any computer or data. The Applicant and his representatives may not themselves search the First Respondent's computers unless they have sufficient expertise to do so without damaging the First Respondent's system.
